

Food Access Inequity Index

Note: The index represents food access inequity in the United States using measures of regional food accessibility and sociodemographic characteristics. The index spans from 0 to 100, where 0 means "perfect" local food access and 100 means no local food access.

[Sources] American Community Survey, USDA Local Food Portal, Fish and Wildlife Service, National Hydrography Dataset, Local Food Data Warehouse